

Marketing Position

We are seeking a highly motivated individual to increase sales of our existing products and to introduce new product lines. If you are customer oriented, strive for results, are a self-driven, high-energy person, and enjoy working with demanding deadlines, then you will enjoy working in our Sales & Marketing Department.

The successful candidate will be responsible for securing new customers and increasing sales. Essential functions include: calling on customers; preparation of proposals and marketing reports; new product development and sales forecasts. Travel is required (35-50% of the time).

The right candidate must be a self-starter, and will have significant growth opportunities as our business continues to expand. Reporting directly to the President, there is a large amount of freedom to make changes to the present philosophy without having to struggle through bureaucracy.

Bachelor's Degree in Engineering, Marketing, Business Administration or the equivalent experience in a related discipline is required.

Aircraft Maintenance/Support Equipment sales experience desirable.

Must have excellent written/verbal communication and computer skills.

Graduate degree and/or prior Aviation/Aerospace background or experience selling to Federal Government Agencies a definite plus.

Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer
